After a weekend in the London area, we will head to Chichester for a week's residency at the cathedral there. We will be taking on the duties of the cathedral choir, singing daily evensong services and three services on Sunday, July 30th. Although the music schedule is intense, we will have the opportunity to visit sites in London, Windsor, Portsmouth, Brighton and the Isle of Wight. We return on the evening of Monday, July 31st. The Choir is excited about our trip and are very grateful for the support of the parish which makes such an experience possible. We are especially grateful to be able to offer this experience to the young people in our choir. We will do our best to represent St. Peter's Church well.
