Mother Christina and Father Paul Hunter

Today we welcome Mother Christina and Father Paul Hunter to St. Peter's Church. They will be with us through the end of July. They are staying at the Rectory during their time here at St. Peter's.

Mother Christina Hunter grew up in Appalachian Ohio. She worked as a newspaper reporter for eight years before going to seminary. She graduated from Trinity School for Ministry in 2010 and was ordained a deacon and priest that same year by the Rt. Rev. William H. Love, IX Bishop of Albany. She co-founded the outreach/mission Oaks of Righteousness in Troy and served there for eight years. She also served as a long-term supply and interim priest at St. John's Church in Troy. Currently, Mother Christina is a stay-at-home mom. She enjoys writing, playing the ukulele, drinking coffee with friends, and hiking. She's hoping to summit her last four mountains in the Adirondack 46 this summer.

Father Paul Hunter grew up in California, the Midwest and New York. After studying liberal arts at Thomas Aquinas College in California, he earned an MDiv at Trinity School for Ministry in 2012. He was ordained deacon and priest in 2013 by Bishop Love. Father Paul loves liturgy, theological study, folk music, fairy tales and writing. Much of his ministry has been in the area of inner-city outreach. Currently, he serves as a Latin, Greek and Classics teacher at Holy Trinity Classical Christian School in Beaufort, South Carolina.

Mother Christina and Father Paul have two children, Martha age 5 and Jonathan age 3.
