Hope or Wishful Thinking?

For by hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what one already sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Rom 8:24-25

What do you hope for in life? The other day, I was talking with a friend and asked her that same question. She replied, "I hope to have good health to travel and enjoy my retirement. I hope to see my grandchildren grow up. I hope I can continue to be of service to other people."

Because we live in the world, it is natural to search for hope in what we know in the experiences, possessions, and relationships of life. But the problem with placing our hope in the things of this world is that we can never be certain about them. Things of this world are transitory. People are unreliable. We are all at the mercy of the changes and chances of this mortal life.

When we place our hopes in what is transitory and imperfect, we end up treating hope itself like a gamble. We hope tentatively, fearful of disappointment, but still longing for a positive outcome. That kind of hope is like betting on the lottery or making a wish before you blow out the candles on your birthday cake. "I hope my wish comes true!"

But that is not the kind of hope that God has called us to. The hope that God gives is certain. The hope that God gives is indestructible. The hope that God gives is eternal. It rests on that which cannot be taken away. It will still be as true tomorrow as it is today. True hope is precisely this: that God is always with us, with you and with me, even unto death and beyond. True hope rests on the unending, overwhelming, boundless love of God for us, a love which has been revealed for all time in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross, and by his rising again.

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. Rom 5:1-5

We are all of us guilty of wishful thinking. We can't help imagining a future that will be the way we want it to be. But my prayer for all of us at St. Peter's is that we remember the difference between a wish and our only true hope, which is in Christ Jesus.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Rom 15:13

Respectfully Submitted: Dr. John B. Davis, Lay Preacher

There in every memory
See his love and care
Strength and hands to count on
Freely he does share
Provider, toil so faithfully
To make our dreams come true
Give strong and tender discipline
Though it is hard to do
A Father is God's chosen one
To lead the family
And point it to His will for life
Of love and harmony...

Burne-Jones Window

St Peter's Church has many stained glass windows. These windows have importance in Christian instruction, and they add significant beauty to the church. One of the most outstanding, is the window donated by George S. Weaver, a Vestryman from 1872 to 1884. This window is pictured above, it depicts the Christology of the Old and New Testaments. At the top of the window we see the Temptation of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. In the main window are three figures important in the history of Christian Church. Going from left to right they are: Abraham (Abraham Heres Mundi), Melchizedek (Melchizedek Rex Salem) and David (David Rex Israel.) These figures are large and the colors are of bright red, gold and blue. At the base of the window are scenes from the nativity of Christ, including the Annunciation, the Birth, and the Adoration of the Kings. This memorial window was designed by Sir Edward Burne-Jones, a noted English artist and pupil of Rossetti. It was made under the artist's supervision by the William Morris Company in London, and installed in 1880.

UPCOMING EVENTS

The Healing Ministry at

Join Sonya Reeder and RJ Ferguson in an exploration and invitation in understanding how giving attention to our own stories is also an invitation to further deepening our relationship with the Father.

This retreat is good for everyone but especially Spiritual Directors and those receiving or looking into receiving Spiritual Direction.

...don't look for shortcuts to God. The market is flooded with surefire easygoing formulas for a successful life that can be practiced in your spare time. Don't fall for that stuff, even though crowds of people do. The way to life – to God! – is vigorous and requires total attention.” ~ Matthew 7:13 (The Message)

REGISTRATION

Join us for an exploration and invitation in understanding how giving attention to our own stories is also an invitation to further deepening our relationship with the Father. Sonya Reeder, LPC-S, and RJ Ferguson, LPC, offer a fresh perspective of understanding oneself as a matter of mapping through the vast workings of our hearts -- impacting how we lead, teach, love, and what we ultimately desire.

Spiritual formation is a willingness to live with an aching heart and an unquenchable thirst as the Holy Spirit arouses a deeper desire to know more fully the Savior whom we long to imitate as we live on this side of heaven. It is a process of detaching from anything and anybody which keeps us from going deeper with Christ, while attaching instead to Christ alone to become more like him. Continuing to be spiritually formed is central to our journey and becoming more like our savior. This journey not only involves being in the word, listening to the leading of the spirit, but it also involves creating space to be within a community of people seeking to go deeper with our Lord as we learn to relate like Him. The writer of Hebrews 3:13 tells us to encourage one another, do not go it alone. When we go it alone it creates division instead of unity and it makes us think we can find our own way instead of inviting others to walk alongside us as the spirit directs our way. We often buy into cultural individualism instead of following the way of the savior which is always relational. The Trinity itself models for us the importance of community and shares the value of relating well.

We hope this retreat will help you become more aware of the spirit's leading, give you the opportunity to be encouraged and to encourage others through sharing the stories God is telling through your life, and we hope you will come to find joy in your journey. Our desire is for this retreat to help give you a new vitality to go back into your life having encountered a God that chases after you and a God who wants you to continue on your faith journey in order to be formed to be more like His son, Jesus.

Sr. Warden's Report – J. Chenot

As we look back at this past month, we started the Lenten season with Ash Wednesday which fell on of March 2nd. March was quite tranquil during the Lenten season as we continued our 10:30 Sunday Services with excellent supply ministers and Deacons. I also want to thank our wonderful LEMs who have been able to assist the supply priests during services and making them feel at home when visiting.

As we continue our Lenten journey in April, we begin setting our eyes on the upcoming weeks ahead. This coming Sunday we will be celebrating our traditional Palm Sunday Service at 10:30. We then look ahead to Holy week and Good Friday, and on Easter Sunday we will celebrate both 8:30 and 10:30 services as we have had in the past years. Saturday, the day before Easter we will have the Easter Egg Hunt at 11:00 AM at the rectory. We hope to see everyone there with their young egg hunters. Thank you Laura, for all your love and work you give all our children at St. Peter's.

Our Altar Guild, Flower Guild and Ushers have all been doing an incredible job as well. It is truly a blessing all the work all our committee's do each week to make our Sunday Services look beautiful and run smoothly. The office is also looking ahead as we prepare for Holy Week and Easter Services, including putting together the Easter lily requests for Easter Services. Thank you, Ruth and Janice for all your help through this busy season. As they do so well behind the scenes, Wayne and Pat continue to make sure our physical plant is tended to and always there to help out. Thank you both. Regarding those behind the scenes, I would also like to thank one of our vestry members, Christie Gordon, for compiling our notes from our vestry meetings, thank you Christie.

We are very fortunate to have secured Father John Scott as our celebrant during the upcoming Holy Week and Easter Services. Though we do not want to shadow all the preparation Father Scott has been working on for all our services, we are able to announce our recent call for Mother Christina Hunter to become our Priest in Charge. More details will be sent out to the congregation regarding the call, as well as position as vestry begins to work on Mother Christina's covenant. This is exciting news for all of us as we look forward to welcoming Mtr. Christina and her family to our St. Peter's family.

I hope everyone is looking forward to this upcoming Easter Sunday and I wish everyone a very Happy Easter.

Jim
